

Supplies:

- The Project Bin ‘Defined’ stamp set
- The Project Bin ‘Wild Thing’ stamps and dies
- DCWV blue textured cardstock
- GKD Powder Blue and Black Onyx cardstock
- Hygloss silver foil cardstock
- Darice Diamond Plate pattern embossing folder
- Gemini Junior die cutting machine
- MISTI stamp tool
- Memento Tuxedo Black ink
- Stampin’ Up! Blushing Bride ink
- Nuvo Ebony Black Crystal Drops
- Modge Podge Dimensional Magic
- Bearly Art precision craft glue
- Tombow Mono permanent adhesive

Life Behind Bars
by Leslie Turner

Instructions

Step 1: Cut card base and layers:

- Cut card base from white cardstock. Standard A2 size top fold created here from 4-1/4" x 11" piece of cardstock, scored at 5-1/2".
- Cut 4-1/4" x 5-1/2" panel from blue textured cardstock to cover front of card base.
- Cut 2-1/2" x 4-1/4" piece of silver foil cardstock and emboss diamond plate pattern into it, then trim 1/4" off and reserve for embellishing the inside panel.
- Cut 3-3/4" x 5" inside panel from white cardstock along with 4" x 5-1/4" layer from powder blue cardstock.
- Cut 1/2" x 4-1/4" strip of blue textured cardstock to go with reserved 1/4" x 4-1/4" silver embossed strip to embellish the inside panel.

(continued)

Step 2. Stamp and die cut:

- a. Stamp bike in black ink and cut with coordinating die. Create one additional bike die cut to layer behind the stamped one for a little dimension.
- b. Die cut small oval shadow from scrap of black cardstock.
- c. Stamp front sentiment in black ink on the right slightly above where the silver embossed piece will be adhered.
- d. Stamp inside sentiment in black ink on white panel.

Step 3. Adhere the elements:

- a. Adhere blue textured cardstock to front of card base.
- b. Adhere silver embossed piece to bottom of front panel. Adhere bike and oval shadow.
- c. Adhere a 1" x 3-3/4" piece of blue textured cardstock to the embossed piece to tone down the shine a bit.
- d. Adhere white stamped panel to powder blue layer and adhere to inside of card base.

Step 4. Add finishing touches:

- a. Apply several dots of black Crystal Drops.
- b. Add Dimensional Magic to headlight.
- c. Admire your handiwork!